

So what do you think?

Having read our ideas we'd like you to think about and answer the following questions:

Which areas do you think it's most important for you to be involved in? [please rank in order of importance, 1 being most important]

- Your own recovery support plan
- How your service is run
- How our organisations are run
- Championing mental health issues and challenging stigma in society

Your recovery support plan – what could be done to help you have more control over the support you receive?

Your service - How could people with lived experience of mental health problems (called peers) be used more to support people in our services?

Your service - in what areas of your service do you think it's important for you to be involved in?

Our organisations - do you think people who use our services should have representation at the top level of our organisations e.g. sit on our board and committees?

Yes No

If you need any help filling in this questionnaire or need it in an alternative format such as large print or different language then please speak to your support worker or contact our communications team on: communications@richmondfellowship.org.uk call: 0207 6973342. Please submit your responses by: 5 June 2015

Society – in what ways can we together champion mental health issues and challenge stigma in our society?

Our organisations - in what other areas of our organisations do you think it's important for the people we support to play an active role in?

Our charter – do you agree with the principles we've set out?

Yes No

Is there anything else you think should be included?
